Organization Clarity Documents

Organization/Accountability/Workflow Chart
$500-$1,250 per organization
Clarifying the communication and accountability within your organization and on your teams provides a framework for sustained success. Working with us on determining how your organization works best will do just that.

Job Description & Performance Review
$200 per role
Do your people know what their role expectations are and how you are grading their performance? If not, how can you expect them to succeed? Give them the clarity on their role and watch them run towards success.
